Dear West Park Families

The new term has started very well and I am delighted with how our pupils have settled back into West Park life. Our new Year 7 pupils have quickly become part of the team and have taken the big steps into secondary school education in their stride.

Monday 22nd September is an inset day; no pupils will be in school. This is also the date of our Open Evening. If you have a child of primary age, feel free to pop down to see what West Park is all about. Further details are available on our website.

Take care and keep in touch.

Kind regards

Scott McGregor
